Good Morning!

Paul confessed to the church at Philippi that he was conflicted on whether to die and go to be with Christ, or to continue to live and be of service to Christ (Phil. 1:21ff). For the Christian who is intent on walking in the Spirit, the pressures and struggles in this life seem to be relentless. We often find ourselves thinking of that time when we will be free from the prison of this body and life on this earth, and will dwell eternally in that place of peace and eternal rest that has been promised to those who love Christ.

In today's text, Paul refers to this desire as "groan[ing] within ourselves, waiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our body." Not only that, but Paul describes the whole creation as groaning under the pain of sin in this world, as we eagerly await the glory that has been promised to the children of God. The title of today's message is, "Groaning for Glory." You see, we are longing for our home – and this world is not it!

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

Jesus is Lord!
