 August 13

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth,
 but you shall meditate in it day and night,
 that you may observe to do
 according to all that is written in it.
 For then you will make your way prosperous,
 and then you will have good success.

Good Morning!

What a blessing it is to witness and share in the joy of baptism of Milly Luckie, John Cooke, and James Smith this morning! Baptism exemplifies a person's complete surrender to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Some have said that it is an outward expression of the inward change that has taken place in the heart of a believer. We rejoice with these three as they obediently follow the example of Jesus in what is frequently called "believers baptism."

Also, this morning I am beginning a new sermon series on the book of Philippians. As Paul traveled throughout the Roman Empire preaching and teaching the gospel, he developed close relationships. Paul's love for the churches he nurtured is evident in the letters he wrote to them. Perhaps there was no church closer to Paul's heart than the church at Philippi. Over the course of this series, we will see Paul share the depths of his heart with the people who had captured his heart. This morning we will begin with an introduction.

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty!
Dan
