Guest Speaker

Tommy Doughty teaches Christian Doctrine, Church History, and other biblical studies, theology, and apologetics classes in Leavell College. His research interests include the work of Christ, salvific inclusivism, and the relation of Christianity and the sciences. For over ten years, Tommy has led music and student ministries in local churches, equipping high school and college students to live out a biblical worldview in their context.

Tommy and his wife, Gretchen, have lived in and loved New Orleans since 2014. They enjoy hosting students in their home, board games, disc golf, and exercise with their beagle, Rosie.
